Shirley Temple Is Growing Up!

Shirley Temple is pert and gets kissed in her newest screen opus, Edward Small's "Miss Annie Rooney," which will have its initial showing at the Daly City theatre through United Artists release.

The story of this new film production is as up-to-date as the rubber shortage, as lively as a bunch of young jitterbugs and as appealing as a young girl's first romance. In fact, all these elements go to make up the story of "Miss Annie Rooney," who was raised on the wrong side of the tracks but wins everyone on both sides with her warm loveliness and infectious gayety.

In the film Shirley is seen as the granddaughter of a retired policeman and the daughter of an insurance salesman who would rather promote billion-dollar ideas than work at his job. When Annie gets her family mixed with that of a socialite boy friend from Park Avenue the complications are astounding and side-splitting.

Want To Do Your

Then...

Help keep up your soldier's morale---

Every soldier takes with him two pictures: his uniform. He carries the other deep in his heart.

And while he boasts of the snapshot he worships his heart's image: the sweet and on last leave.

To every man that image is different; yet soft breezes in happy places, star-light and the picture the soldier must hold against the form the pattern of his dreams.

Perhaps this is why no woman can forget a woman is not a farm hand, a worker, teacher.

And so she makes her unique contribution to the march. He hearkens to her voice in the and tenderness is the future for which he fights.

These things he will remember; the sun laughed at the little joke they shared; her hair the pattern of her blue dress and the faint er circumstance in life can bring.

All over the nation this autumn the soldiers tell America's story. With their men, the girls and paths, some of them, tread in '61 by other.

Soon—tomorrow, perhaps—they will be tending the humming machines, doing the machine age with a quiet devotion all their own.

But today each is the beloved of a soldier says "So long, soldier," with a smile.

Chocolate Chip Ice Cream

By Frances Lee Barton

No matter what your favorite dessert may be, you may rest assured that the children will choose ice cream — invariably. And, by the way, men seem to have a leaning toward this cold tasty. It's a popular dessert at any time.

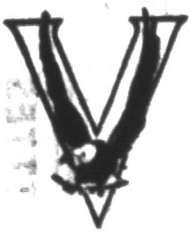

Here's a recipe for something new in the ice cream line. High in food value, delicious in flavor and comparatively inexpensive, it should be a good "repenter" for your recipe file:

Chocolate Chip Ice Cream
 1/2 package (scant 1/2 cup) vanilla ice cream powder; 2 tablespoons sugar; 1 cup milk; 1 cup cream, whipped; 1/2 cup coarsely chopped semi-sweet chocolate.

Combine ice cream powder and sugar. Add milk very gradually, stirring until dissolved. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, setting control for coldest freezing temperature. Stir when frozen 1/2 inch thick on sides and twice more at 20-minute intervals, adding chocolate with third stirring. Freezing time: about 3 hours. Makes 1 quart.

For 1 1/2 quarts, double recipe above, using full contents of package. Freeze in one or two trays 3 to 6 hours.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

FIRST TOWNSHIP

ELECTION DAY
 NOVEMBER 3, 1942

MAIL SOLDIERS' XMAS GIFTS BEFORE NOVEMBER 1.

READ THE RULES—The following rules, issued by the Postoffice Department in cooperation with the Army Postal Service of the War Department, apply to the mailing of Christmas parcels for members of our Armed Forces serving outside the continental limits of the United States.

TIME OF MAILING—Christmas parcels and greeting cards should be mailed during the period beginning October 1 and ending November 1, 1942, the earlier the better. Each package should be endorsed "Christmas Parcel." Special effort will be made for delivery in time for Christmas.

SIZE AND WEIGHT—Christmas parcels shall not exceed 11 pounds in weight or 18 inches in length or 42 inches in length and girth combined. However, the public has been urged to cooperate by voluntarily restricting parcels to the size of an ordinary shoe box and the weight to six pounds.

USE CARE IN PREPARATION—Remembering the great distance this mail will be transported and the necessary storage and frequent handling, it is absolutely necessary that articles be packed in substantial boxes or containers and be covered with wrappings of sufficient strength to resist pressure of other mail. Each parcel is subject to censorship and delay may be minimized by securing covering to permit ready inspection of contents.

PROHIBITED MATTER—Intoxicants, inflammable materials, poisons or compositions likely to damage mails are unsalable. No perishable matter should be included in parcels.

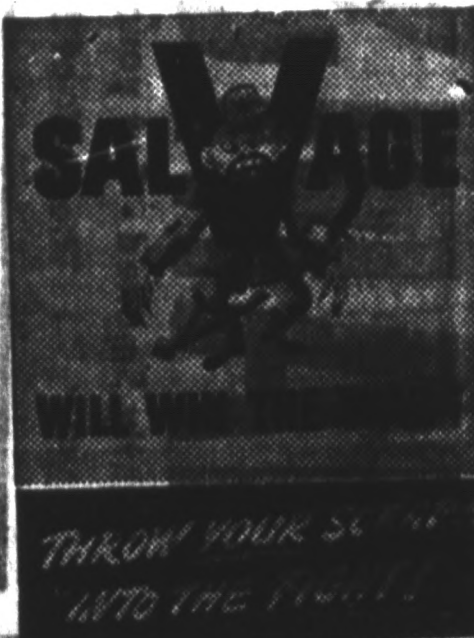

HOW TO ADDRESS PARCELS—Addresses must be legible. Parcels addressed to overseas Army personnel should show in addition to the full name and address of the sender, the name rank, Army serial number, branch of service, organization, A.P.O. number of the addressee and the postoffice through which parcels are to be routed. Units located within the continental United States may be addressed direct, using name, rank, organization and location.

POSTAGE MUST BE FULLY PREPAID—The rate on parcels of fourth-class matter (exceeding eight ounces) being the same rate applicable from the postoffice where mailed to the postoffice in the care of which parcels are addressed.

GREETING MESSAGES PERMISSIBLE—Inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Don't open until Christmas" and the like may be placed on the covering of the parcel if it does not interfere with the address. Cards may be enclosed and books may bear a simple dedicatory inscription.

INSURANCE AND REGISTRY—Gifts of value should be insured. Articles of small size and considerable value should be insured and sent as first-class registered mail.

MONEY ORDERS—The Army Postal Service recommends use of postal money orders to transmit gifts of money to members of Armed Forces outside the United States. These are cashed at A.P.O. in local foreign currency at rate of exchange on date of presentation.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

★ How to get a course in nutrition by mail ★ List of nutritional foods
★ How Kay helped defense at home

Are you sure your family's fed right?

Did you know that our Government says: "The Nation is under-nourished?"
Did you know that you and your family can eat three square meals each day and still be under-fed?
Did you know that meals properly designed for good nutrition can lose much of their value in cooking?

To help in the Government's program to make this Nation the first national family of buoyantly healthy people the world has ever known, Safeway Homemakers' Bureau is offering a correspondence course in nutrition and menu planning. It is a completely revised edition of Julia Lee Wright's "Kitchen Course in Nutrition" first offered a year ago—the correspondence course in nutrition which helped thousands to enjoy better health. This new "Kitchen Course in Nutrition" is just off the press, to meet wartime demands and includes the newest nutritional standards recommended by our Government. We know this course will be an aid to the Government's program of building an impregnable defense of national health for today thus ensuring for our children the greatest heritage that one generation has ever bequeathed to the next—health.

The new, revised and streamlined correspondence course, "Kitchen Course in Nutrition" is a simple, practical guide in feeding your family properly, economically, along new, improved lines. It's a personal-ized course, so flexible it will enable you to work out your family food problems regardless of size or ages. It's a course that you can and should use every day.

You'll discover, for example, new, surprising facts on vitamins... the importance of minerals... all about proteins. More important, you'll learn how to preserve natural food values in your cooking... how to buy the most nutrition for your money.

This material, gathered from Government and Homemakers' Bureau sources costs thousands of dollars. Yet this practical and understandable course, condensed and organized by our own Graduate Nutritionists, is available to you by mail for only 25c.

ALBERT H. BOYNTON ——— Editor and Publisher

EVERY TOWN NEEDS A GOOD NEWSPAPER

"Let me read your newspaper and I'll tell you the kind of a town you have."

This terse quotation, credited to a business executive failing to be impressed by claims on behalf of a far-removed community in which his company had indicated interest, evidences the degree in which the newspaper of today has come to be held as accurately reflecting the life which it serves.

Later, this figure of business and the institutions of the area in finance was asked to expand his statement. His reply is a matter of import to everyone who shares interest in his or her community and some important standards by which it is judged by those outside the sphere of local interest or sentiment.

"Show me a community that has a live, aggressive newspaper, made possible by well-filled advertising pages representative of local interests, and I'll show you the town that is headed for growth and development."

"B" Stands For "Biscuits"

By Frances Lee Barton

"B" stands for biscuits, but it stands also for bee, butter, and baking powder. And incidentally, when you bring out your butter, your baking powder, and the honey from the bee, you don't need to add very many other ingredients until you have the necessary items for the honey biscuits below. Try this sugarless recipe and note the results. You'll be delighted:

Honey Biscuits

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 5 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1/4 cup milk.

4 tablespoons butter; 1/4 cup honey. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk all at once and stir carefully until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll 1/4 inch thick and cut with floured 2 1/4-inch biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased baking sheet in hot oven (450° F.) 12 to 15 minutes.

Cream butter, add honey, and blend. Remove biscuits from oven; split in halves. Spread with honey mixture. Put halves together and serve with remaining honey mixture. Makes 18 biscuits.
